

Pot of Gold News: Remind for School Council

The school council is now using Remind.com as a means of communication. This service allows them to send reminders about school council meetings, fundraising deadlines, and other council-related business right to your email, or better yet, as a text. To sign up, just follow this link <https://www.remind.com/join/rcessc>. You can choose how to receive communication from us and you can opt out at any time.
